DeadLinkChecker Report

On the http://www.deanza.edu/webguide/ page there is a broken link (404) in the left rail using the anchor text "Using Your Web Account" and attempting to direct to "http://www.deanza.edu/webguide/webinstructions.html"

Error is common to all pages using the same left rail under the http://www.deanza.edu/webguide/ directory

1. Navigate to http://www.deanza.edu/webguide/

2. Click the link "Using Your Web Account" in the middle of the left rail

3. Obtain 404 Page Not found error attempting to reach the destination url:
http://www.deanza.edu/webguide/webinstructions.html

Expected Behavior:
The link should direct to a valid page

Actual Behavior:
404 Page not Found

Found with deadlinkchecker.com (see attached for image of failure report)

Nice use of catcher's mitt!   ;-) webinstructions.html was an outdated page and removed from the website, but the link in the left navigation under /webguide/ was missed. The "Using Your Web Account" link has been removed from the left navigation.

Verified the old link has been removed from the source page.
